Nicklas, Condrou and Rizer made a raid last night on the saloon kept by Gilbert Houk, corner of York street and the railroad, and arrested four fellows named Samuel Ryan Tim Lyons, John Sullivan and John Luby, They were taken to the station-house in the patrol wagon and locked up on the charge of loitering about a saloon.

The horse attached to D. E. Moore's delivery wagon tell on High street, in front of the postoffice, this morning. He got badly tangled up in the harness, and it was nearly an hour before he could be gotten to his feet. In the mean time a crowd of probably on hundred persons congregated, and as usual on such occasions, each had a suggestion to make as to the best way to get the animal up.

Deputy Marshal Curran last evening at rested a boy named Jacob Zipperle, aged about thirteen years, whom he caught stealing coal from the cars in the Ohio Southern yard. The boy acknowedged his crime but claimed that he was forced to do it. His father owns property here and the stealing of the coal was not a necessity. Young Zepperic will have his trial before the Mayor this

In Common Pleas court, yesterday after noon, Judge Goode heard the divorce case of Dora Wade versus Charles Wade, application being on the ground that defendant had been sent to the penitentiary on conviction for grand larceny and was doing nothing for support of his family. The parties are colored and came from Dayton. The Court made an entry on the docket providing that a decree should be entered upon payment of costs in

Yesterday morning two fellows named Baker and Dixon entered Levy's store, and while the former engaged the attention of the clerk, Dixon stole a pair of jean's pants and hid them under his coat. They left and it is supposed the pants did not fit either of them, as in about an hour they returned and said they wanted to exchange them for another pair. The pants had been missed and the two fellows were asked how much they paid for them. They said $1.50, which is $1 more than the price asked for them. Capt. Billy Wood came along at this moment and arrest ed the tellows and locked them up in jail.

Tomorrow, February 15, will be Shrow Sunday, and will be observed as such in the usual manner in the Roman Catholic churches Next Wednesday, February 18, will be Ash Wednesday, beginning the forty days Lenten season, during which the faithful are enjoined and expected to give special attention to religious duties, and shun purely worldly easures and frivolities. Services appropriat to the solemn occasion will be held in Epis copal and Catholic churches Sunday. April 5 will be Easter Sunday, closing the season of Lent, Good Friday falling on the preceding third of April. Order of special Lenten see vices will be published in a day or two.

The revival meeting in Central M. E church was beld in the main audience room last evening, which was hardly large enough to accommodate all who attended. There were fifteen seekers at the altar and ten conassisted at this meeting by Rev. Creighton $100. There was nothing of any particular Wons and a young man named Thompson from the eastern part of the county, where they have been conducting a meeting, with good results. The evening before Rev. Geo. New Moorefield; $120. P. Bethel and Rev. J. W. Gunn assisted in conducting the meeting. The meetings will be continued next week. Also at the Congregational church, where, last evening, four on Urbana pike; $125.

The "great seal" of the new Circuit Court, which is to put the official mark upon legal papers ia cases in that court, was received to day by Clerk of Courts J. H. Rabbitts, It was made, on contract, by a firm in Columous, whose artists have not learned yet how to spell correctly the name of this county, adding the letter "e," which is superfluous ocorrect and utterly without warrant. The nscription surrounding the State seal of Ohio, reads: "The Circuit Court of Obio_Clark-(e) County." Mr. Rabbitts will have a local rtist eliminate, as it were, the uncalled for John Dickson and John Baker, soldiers of fortune, whose home is under their hats, were jailed last evening for stealing a pair of trousers from M. D. Levy. They might have escaped but for their great gall in returning to the store and making a proposition to exchange the bi-furcates for a larger pair, as the one stolen would fit neither of the precious pair. Baker was recognized as a party who had been going about trying to pass himself off as the stalwart deputy sheriff, A. J. Baker. and wanted, moreover, on charge of stealing a mouth barp, or barmonicum, and many other trifles, for which an additional charge was lodged again him. It is wisely surmised that the main object of both was to get snug quarters the remainder of the winter.

Mr. R. R. Cheney, of this city, is probably the man, certainly one of those, who gave the first alarm of the rebel advance bringing on the battle of Cedar creek, in the Shenandoah valley. He was a member of the Fourth Vermont infantry, attached to the famous Vermont brigade, and very early in the morning of the day on which the battle was tought was on guard at Sixth corps beadquarters with orders to awake the adjutant instantly on firing being beard at the front. He heard the first shot and immediately several more, and carrying out his orders to awake the staff, the call to arms soon sounded through the Union camps. Mr. Cheney witnessed the coming up of Sheridan and the subsequent ction which resulted in the Federal battalions ecapturing the positions from which they had been forced to retire in the morning. It was an experience ever memorable.

Many of those engaged in benevolent work in this city have expressed their approval of the GLOBE-REPUBLIC editorials urging the formation of a Board of Associated Charities in Springfield. Among these is Mrs. E. L. Buchwalter, who visited Indianapolis last fall and gave personal attention to the system which has been organized and applied in that city. It was established by the Rev. Mr. Gurteen, who is the father of the organized Charity systems in this country. He visited Europe with the special purpose of ascertain ing the best methods of providing for the poor and the organization at Indianapolis is one of the best in existence. The township trustees, the Sisters of Charity and all other benevolent organizations work together, harmoniously and effectively, and the general society aims not only to relieve sufferbut to provide employment prevent poverty. It has a wood-yard, in which a hungry man can earn a meal before he eats it. It has also a training school for purses, a flower-mission branch, which cares for the poor who are sick, and other features. The wood-yard is not only self-supporting, but yields a clear income of $500 a year. It is the prevailing opinion among our local workers that we should soon proceed to form an organization of this sort here. Mr. Gurteen, who is an Episcopal clergyman, and the Rev. Mr. Mc-Cullock a Congregational paster in Indian-apolia, have expressed their willingness to Cullock a Congrege come here at any time and explain and illus-

Wanted for Murder and Robbery. The postoffice at Huntington, Ind., was robbed about ten days ago, and in a fight with the thieves the city marshal was shot and wounded and one of the burglars, named Newcomb, was shot dead by another, named "Shamus" O'Brien. The gang have all been captured, excepting O'Brien, for whom a reward is offered. The Urbana Citizen of Friday says of him:

Shamus O'Brien is one of the most daring men en the road, and although only about twenty-three years of age, has made a bad record. He was sent to the penitentiary from Springfield when but sixteen years of age, for knocking a man down on the public streets in day light, and robbing him. He received eighteen months sentence for it. He was only out a short time until he was arrested here highway robbery, and was again sent to the penitentiary for three years and a half. His term expired only a year ago. Besides the two terms in the penitentiary he has had a number of jail sentences for petty offences. He now says that he has been over the road twice and before he will go again he will die. He is heavily armed and is not slow to use arms, when necessary. Newcomb, the man he accidentally shot, was arrested here once for horse stealing and taken to Dayton, where be was a member of the famous Blackburn gang and was sent to the penitentiary.

Criminal proceedings against Henry Snarsuberger, for embezzlement, came to a sudden and summary termination last evening, when the affair was compromised and the young man released from jail. Snarenberger, senior, who lives a mile from Greenfield, Highland county, came here, and after interviews with the parties concerned, satisfied Rhodes's claim by giving his note for the full amount of $500 and paying off costs accumulated in the case so far. Father and son then left for home, accompanied, one statement has it, by the injured wife and children. It the large amount of free advertising given the young man and a contemplation of the narrow escape he has had, effect a reform, the affair will not have been entirely without benefit to him. Some say the settlement was the more readily agreed to, for the reason that there was a little doubt as to the strength of the evidence against the accused, whose connection with Rhodes may have been so nearly that of a partner that a case of embezzlement ould not be made out. This leaves the Co-umbus young woman to bear from. Caboose Burned. The fire department had the first run this aonth at about 6:30 this morning, on call from Box 27, at East and Pleasant streets. The fire proved to be in Ohio Southern freight caboose, No. 101, standing on the Champion works switch, between East and York streets at the head of Central avenue. The roof and sides were burned partly off, but the lower part of the car was saved by quick work of the firemen, although the car was in a bright blaze when discovered by people living in the vicinity. Those in charge at the round house may that the eaboose came, in yesterday and had been standing on the siding all night without any fire in it, as far as they knew, and the supposition is a lot of tramps who were hanging around spent the night in the car and, either intentionally or accidentally. versions. Eleven members of the Republican execu tive committee attended the meeting las evening, in secretary Goodwin's office, called to make further arrangements for the delegate election and convention of the 24th and 25th instants. The principal discussion of the evening was upon the question of representation of the colored vote. A portion of that element of the party had received the impression somehow that under the plan adopted for choosing delegates to the convention they would, or might be deprived of their proper epresentation, and the scheme was devised of having separate ballot boxes at all the places for colored votes; the colored voters to be entitled to as many delegates as indicated by the vote thus cast, subject to the ratio adopted by the Central Committee last Saturday. The plan received a majority vote of those present last night, four voting against it, and is declared adopted. The understanding therefore is there will be no

"mixing" of ballots at the delegate election. The meeting made arrangements for printing directions and instructions as to manner of conducting the election, for distribution and for supply of blanks upon which to write names of delegates. Arrangements were alo made for defraying necessary expenses of the election and convention, by equitable assement on candidates. The session was a decidedly lively one and the committee adurned at a late hour.

The machinery in the Central engine hous was changed about, as to position on the floor, yesterday, to make room, for the second hose reel, the book and ladder truck going to the north side and the chemical extinguisher to the south side, with the two-wheeled reel behind it. George Barton is to take this in hand, repainting and decorating it. A full supply of good hose will then be reeled on, ready for emergency.

Strong language is ofttimes ineffective as rell as indelicate, but the language of Mrs. Thomas Strong, of Bangor, Me., is so explicit as to leave no doubt of its truth. The lady writes: "I found Mishler's Herb Bitters the best remedy I could desire for nausea and vomiting." Persons who have tried the Bitters for dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney dis-ease, indigestion, stomach disorders, and nervous complaints, are equally emphatic and unequivocal in attesting the wonderful cura-tive properties of the medicine.

I was at times so lame that I could not scarcely get about, and could not dress myself without assistance. I have tried many remedies and have paid $100 in a single instance to a physician, but have ever obtained only temporary relief. Although helped for a time, I soon relapsed sgain to be as badly troubled as ever, and during the winter of 1881 and 1882 I suffered so much as to be entirely discouraged. Last June, however, I was advised by Elder and Mrs. L. C. McKinstry, who are well known in these regions, to try your Curicuma Erempirs; and I felt somehow a little courage, from their favorable opinion of them, to try their yirtue. About the second week of July last I commenced taking the remedies, and within six weeks I began to see a permanent improvement, until now Oct.
